"When I perform, I want the whole place to feel like it's floating, like the beat is carrying us somewhere"

- Erykah Badu.
