A black and white, high-contrast photograph of Erykah Badu. She is shown from the chest up, wearing a dark, textured garment. Her head is tilted slightly to the left, and her eyes are closed or looking down. She is singing into a vintage-style microphone that is positioned in the lower-left foreground. The background is dark and grainy, with some light reflecting off her hair and the microphone's grille. The overall mood is intimate and focused.

"When I perform, I want the whole place to feel like it's floating, like the beat is carrying us somewhere"

- Erykah Badu.

"Music does a lot of things for a lot of people. It's transporting, for sure. It can take you right back, it's uplifting, it's encouraging, it's strengthening."
